Saturday at St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Auburn, by the Rev. Norton T. Houser, the rector, and Bishop Charles Tyler Olmstead, of the diocese of central New York. Nearly 100 guests from other cities were in the throng that filled the church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attended by Mrs. Charles G. Williams, of Bridgeport, Conn., a classmate at Smith College, for whom a short time ago the bride herself was bridesmaid. Mr. Douglas Crocker, of Pittsburgh, Mass., a classmate of the bridegroom in the class of 1910 at Harvard, was best man. The ushers were Mr. George W. Martin, of New York; Mr. J. Randolph Coolidge, 3d, of Boston; Mr. Arthur Sweeney, of Lawrence, Mass.; and Mr. Charles D. Osborne, of Auburn, also classmates at Harvard; the Messrs. Pennington and Wilfred Sefton, brothers of the bride, and Mr. Theodore W. Case, of Auburn. A reception at the Pine, the home of the bride's parents, followed the ceremony and was attended by 250 guests.

After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Page started on a wedding trip. They will live at 113 Fourth street, Garden City, Long Island.

Word has been received of the marriage last Saturday in France of Miss Huguette de Foras, daughter of Comte and Comtesse Max de Foras and niece of Mrs. Edward Spencer, of New York, to Mr. Charles Campbell, first secretary of the American legation in Bern, Switzerland.

The ceremony took place at Chateau de Thuiset, near Thyon-les-Bains. The witnesses were Comte Etienne de Foras, the bride's uncle, and Comte de Beauregard. The bride's mother, who was Miss Marie Meredith Read, of New York, is a daughter of the late Gen. Meredith Read, U. S. A. The bride's father obtained leave of absence from the French army at Verdun to attend the wedding and give away his daughter.

Miss Gladys B. Pollon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Edward Pollon, of New York and Shippan Point, Conn., will be married to Mr. Francis Currier Thursday at the Church of the Divine Fraternity, Miss Pollon, who is a sister of Capt. Arthur Pollon, U. S. A., military attaché at The Hague, will have no attendants.

The wedding has been announced of Mr. John Taylor, of Virginia, and Miss Margaret Hall Parker, of Birmingham, Ala. The ceremony will be performed by the Rev. C. T. Holtbrook, of St. Mary's Episcopal Church, Baltimore. Only intimate friends of the bride and bridegroom attended the wedding. After the ceremony the couple left for Palm Beach, Fla., on their way to Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mrs. Taylor is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Parker, formerly of Greenville, Ala. Mr. Taylor is a son of Dr. Thomas L. Taylor, of Riverside, Va., and is well known in society circles here. The couple will make their home in Baltimore.

Miss Grovane Vall Converse, who will be married tomorrow to Mr. George T. Aranyi at the home of her mother, Mrs. G. Vall Converse, of 43 East Seventy-eighth street, New York.

Youthful, Beautiful Skin Easy to Have

You may be as healthy as a bird in the air and still have a poor complexion. Changing seasons and temperatures, winds, dust and dirt, are apt to injure your skin, even though the general health be good. When these external influences spoil the complexion, the natural thing is to remove the spoil by external means. Ordinary macerated wax will do this. It will actually absorb the weather-soiled film-skin, a little each day. In a week or two you'll have a brand new complexion, a new skin. The exquisitely beautiful and youthful complexion thus acquired, comes so easily, without harm or discomfort, there's no reason why any woman should not adopt this simple treatment. Get an ounce of macerated wax at any drug store, apply nightly like cold cream, washing it off mornings. This will not fail in any case.

To quickly remove wrinkles, signs of care and age, bathe the face occasionally in solution of powdered exaltol, 1 oz., dissolved in 1 pt. witch hazel. The results will surprise you.—Adv.

will have her sister-in-law, Mrs. James Vall Converse, as her chief attendant, and two flower girls, Mona Bracken and Bobbie Serrell. The best man will be Count Otto Salm Hoogstraeten, whom Mr. Aranyi attended in a similar capacity at the wedding of the Count and Miss Maud Coster.

Mr. and Mrs. Irad Hawley, of New York, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Natalie Hawley, to Mr. Leonard Kirby, Jr., of North Hackensack, N. J. Miss Hawley has just returned from school at Sweetbriar, Va. She is passing the summer with her parents in Henryville, Pa. Mr. Kirby was a member of the class of 1915 at the United States Naval Academy, at Annapolis, Md. The wedding will probably take place in the autumn.

The wedding of Miss Mary Chepley Coolidge and Mr. Edward Farnsworth Atkins, Jr., Harvard, '15, of Belmont, took place Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Coolidge, in Boston. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Alexander Mann, D. D., rector of Trinity Church.

The bride had one attendant, her sister, Miss Isabelle Coolidge as maid of honor. Mr. Randolph Boyle, of Louisville, Ky., Harvard classmate of Mr. Atkins, served as best man.

June Hospitalities.

Mrs. Henry Holcombe will entertain at a theater party tomorrow in compliment to Miss Dorothy Taylor, whose marriage to Mr. Robert Courtney Hilliard will take place Wednesday.

Circular Barn of Concrete.

A pioneer re-enforced concrete, round barn, the first of its kind, and only one known to exist in the United States, has been completed on the farm of Harry McDaniel, near Dover, Del.

The barn is seventy-two feet in diameter and sixty-four feet high, the concrete walls being twenty feet high and eight inches thick, re-enforced. It has a capacity of about 300 tons of hay. There is a circular track, thirty-five feet above the floor, used in conveying the hay to the remotest part of the loft.

The lower floor of the barn has thirty stalls for milk cows and eighteen stalls for horses, with a space in the center for twenty-five head of young stock. The building is 226 feet in circumference.—Popular Science Monthly.

Today And A Generation Hence

The flight of time makes us think of the future. The baby of today reflects what greatness may be acquired when he grows up. And any influence that brings relief to the expectant mother is the first and greatest of obligations. There is a splendid remedy known as "Mother's Friend" that has been a safeguard, a helpful daily influence to a host of women. Applied externally to the muscles they become pliant, absence of distress, the nerves are soothed by taking away the burden of leaving all to just natural conditions.

We do not know to what extent the comfort and ease of the expectant mother influences the mental development of the child. Its physical nature, however, must be greatly aided. And it may easily be understood why with a restful nervous system, a calm anticipation and a joyous expectancy, there can be none of those harassing disturbances to provoke nervous conditions.

There is in "Mother's Friend" the direct and immediate help that all expectant mothers require. Used by their own hand, guided by their own mind, they learn at once the blessed relief from morning sickness resulting from undue stretching. They experience daily calm and nightly rest. It is indeed "Mother's Friend." Get a bottle today of any drugist. Then write Bradford Regulator Co., 716 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for one of the most entertaining and valuable little books ever produced. It is worth writing for.

The tailoring of a suit determines its value and milady who pays to $40.00 is generally a connoisseur. With the certainty of the suits here meeting the keenest criticism and with the guarantee that the silk linings will give satisfactory service for two seasons, the hope is that the reduced price—$10.00—will not create an unfavorable impression, but, rather, that the Palais Royal clearing sale of 1916 is being associated with prices reduced to a minimum rarely linked with high-class suits.
